BIOGRAPHY

Miss Maryam Nabeel Alsaie is an Auditor in Nabeel Alsaie Public Accountants Nexia Bahrain a professional service provider established since 1985. Maryam has been auditing financials and providing financial and taxation services for different business owners in the Kingdom, having worked with a sole proprietorship, limited liability co., partnerships, and different private and public societies. She completed her Masters in Professional Accounting and Bachelor of Commerce at Griffith University - Australia. She then had the opportunity to establish herself as an entrepreneur by being the sole franchisee of an Italian jewellery brand in Bahrain. Since 2015 she was able to re-establish herself as a business owner in the Kingdom, which gave her the ability to expand her experience, business management and apply her financial background knowledge in real life. She is also a member of the global entrepreneurs' network, which enabled her to share experiences and meet business owners from around the world. Lastly, Maryam started her academic career in 2020 as a part-time tutor at the University of Bahrain, which gave her the advantage to share her real-life experience with the minds of the future.
